GREAT NAVAL BATTLE.

London—Members of the British destroyer crews who have returned from the naval battle fought off Heligoland Friday report that at least eleven German warships of various sizes were sunk in the engagement which lasted eight hours and resulted in wiping out that portion of the German fleet which ventured out from the port to sea.

CAUGHT IN A TRAP.

The Germans were caught in a trap by the British. When the little cruiser Fearless, carrying four-inch guns, was sent up the coast patrolling, she brought out the Germans from their cover, and the British cruisers surrounded them. The Fearless engaged four of the enemy's ships. Only one of the German cruisers to strike the British cruiser was the Mainz, and other German cruisers sank destroyer approaching the Mainz.

These alive report horrible scene on board the Mainz, wreckage and dead lying all over the ship. 170 of crew killed and many wounded, 70 wounded being landed at both yesterday. Among them is the son of Admiral von Tripitz. Other British cruisers returned to Harwich. One destroyer has fourteen holes in her hull. The little Fearless was struck nineteen times.

TERRIFIC LAND FIGHTING

Paris—Terrific land fighting took place between French troops and German invaders in the vicinity of Lille. Four French corps advanced and routed the German tenth corps, while German left wing was driven south in the direction of Liege, where they were attacked on two sides. The plans of the Germans for a turning movement and attack on Lille have been wrecked entirely.

A newspaper confirms previous report of (unintelligible). All German troops in the vicinity of Lille have been driven back. French troops have advanced and now occupy line along Mortagne. Right wing forward.

BELGIAN KING LEADS TROOPS

Brussels—King Albert led his troops in person today, forces from his army continuing offensive against the Germans, who were withdrawn from a line of Belgium.

PARIS GETTING READY

Paris—The military governor of Paris has ordered all residents within the two circles of forts defending the city to tear down their battlements and evacuate the section. Four days are given in which to carry out these orders.

This means that thousands of buildings in the outskirts must be pulled, and wide circle 34 miles in circumference is to be bared, making the approach of an enemy only possible across an open plain.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA.

London—The Germans have found that the approach of the Russians toward Berlin a danger that demands greater forces to meet, and now, instead of troops toward west Prussia from Belgium has begun. One hundred and sixty railway trains loaded with troops have passed out of Belgium back to German territory.

Copenhagen confirms this report.

Regular traffic has been suspended. Germany claims a Russian reverse in east Prussia where five Russian army corps and three cavalry divisions were driven back to their own territory.

THREE SEA BATTLES

London—Yesterday was a day of successes for the British on the sea, victories occurring in the North Sea, Adriatic and China.

In the North Sea the British squadron was victorious. In the Adriatic a destroyer fought a duel with an Austrian destroyer and came off victorious. In the China sea, a British destroyer sank a German vessel of the same class.

In the North Sea a British squadron under Admiral Beatty, in the Flamingo, with the New Zealand, Queen Mary, Princess Royal, and other cruisers, fought the torpedo boat destroyer Laerth, destroyed a German squadron, sinking the Mainz and another vessel of the same class.

The Amethyst was damaged and the Laerth also suffered somewhat. The British loss of life was small. A cruiser carrying wounded is making for port.

One German cruiser on fire disappeared in the fog.

WOUNDED REACH ENGLAND

Framingham—A hospital ship has arrived from France bringing the wounded soldiers.

TRAWLER SUNK BY MINE

London—A trawler off Northumberland was struck by a mine and sunk. Only five of her crew reached shore.

MILLIONAIRES ARE "SOAKED"

Antwerp—Antwerp says that the German military government has designated as hostages Ernest Solk, a rich Belgian, upon whom a levy of $6,000,000 is imposed; and Baron Rothschild, who is to pay the payment of $2,000,000.

It is said in the British war office that the Germans claim a victory over the Allies in Belgium, but this report is not confirmed in despatches from Paris and Antwerp.

CANADIANS OFF TO WAR.

London—The First Canadian Regiment sailed from Montreal on a transport today for Europe. The regiment was raised and outfitted by R. B. Bennett and Hamilton. Of the 1,100 men in the regiment, 1,000 wear medals showing previous service in South Africa, the Philippines or Cuba. Twenty to twenty-five thousand Canadian troops will follow this first detachment in two weeks.

JAPANESE FIRED ON.

Tsing Tau—Two small Japanese cruisers hovering close to the German naval base and port of Tsing Tau drew first fire from the German guns. Several shells fell about the ships, one of them finding its mark.

WOMEN DISLIKE THE WAR.

New York—Twenty thousand women clad in black marched through the downtown districts yesterday as a protest against the war in Europe. Mrs. Henry Villard carried a peace banner.

BELGIUM PAYS SLOWLY.

London—Only $200,000 of the $40,000,000 demanded of the city of Brussels has been paid. The Germans threaten to take the great collection of the Flemish Masters in the Museum if the money is not forthcoming soon.

LOUVAIN IS BURNED.

Antwerp—Louvain, a city of 40,000, has been seized and burned by the Germans.

BELGIAN MINISTER PROTESTS.

The Belgian Minister to the United States protests against action of the Germans in burning Louvain as an act against international law and in violation of the laws of humanity.

Protest has been submitted to the United States and other neutral countries. A statement that a German officer in Moulon killed two Red Cross nurses and wounded a third. An affidavit from the wounded nurse to the effect has been filed. All wore the insignia of the Red Cross, conspicuously displayed, at the time they were attacked.

GERMANS IMPEDING ADVANCE.

London—St. Petersburg despatches say that the Germans have not only multiplied the natural difficulties against invasion by the Russians. All East Prussia is said to be panic stricken.

HONOLULU NEWS.

Honolulu—Oahu will send 125 delegates to the Civic Convention on Maui, October 3-5.

Charles A. Rice says he will meet Kuhio in debate if his managers will sanction such a course. Lorrin Andrew opposes the scheme.

Merchants oppose holiday for September 12, and have petitioned Governor against holiday.

BALKANS TO TAKE A HAND

Washington—Turkey, Greece, Bulgaria and Roumania are soon to become active participants in the war of Europe, according to the view of the diplomats.

Turkey, Bulgaria and Roumania will declare war against French, Russians and British and come to the aid of Austria and Germany.

Greece will throw her lot with Serbia and Montenegro, and the Balkans will once more be ablaze with hostilities.

Turkey will set out by declaring war on the Allies.

Greece will be expected to take up the challenge at once, which will be followed by declarations of war by Bulgaria and Roumania.

Announcement is made from German Embassy that Lehman Pasha, who had been loaned Turkey to train and lead Turkish troops, has been put in command of entire Turkish army.

The American cruiser North Carolina will go into Turkish waters for the State department, carrying gold for the relief of Americans.

Powers have already been notified of the purpose of her mission.

GERMAN CRUISER DESTROYED

Berlin—In naval engagement between Russian cruisers in the Gulf of Finland and a portion of the German blockading squadron, the German cruiser Magdeburg, cruising in a fog, ran ashore on the island of Oldenberg. Her plight became known to the Russians, who despatched a cruiser to destroy her. The Magdeburg wireless for aid and a portion of the German squadron coming to her assistance torpedoed her to keep her from falling into Russian hands. The Magdeburg lost 17 killed, 25 taken prisoners and 85, including the captain, missing.

MOVEMENTS IN PRUSSIA.

London—Operations in Prussia are still unchecked. The Russians yesterday entered and occupied Tikit (probably Lyck-Ed. Gard. Isl.), in east Prussia. Throughout the southern and eastern districts the Germans have retreated and are now concentrating at Osterode and Allenstein.

The Russian advance is now moving toward Konigsberg, having crossed the Allain in several places. The left wing is rapidly approaching the important railroad center of Lemberg (This may be Bromberg, northeast of Posen-Ed. Gard. Isl.). The center is pushing toward Posen, where it is thought the fiercest battle will be fought.

GERMANS DEMAND DAMAGES.

The Germans demanded of Tournai, in Belgium, $400,000, and within an hour after the demand the burgomaster was held as hostage. Charleroi was assessed $300,000. Premier Asquith said yesterday, commenting on the acts of the Germans, that they are against all usages of war.

SITUATION IN BELGIUM.

The French war offices issue statement that operations extending as they do over a front 250 miles long have necessitated a change in the position of troops now occupying the Setaing. Line in Belgium, east of Namur, in order to meet German advance line is supported by the French on both flanks.

In the Vosges district French have resumed the offensive and have driven back the Germans, who, however, yesterday forced the French to retire upon Saint Dir.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

Washington—The action of Carranza in repudiating old bank and treasury notes precipitated a riot in the city of Mexico yesterday.

Negotiations have been completed for the discharge of 5,000 Mexican prisoners taken to Forts Wingate and Rosecrans in the United States. Carranza has guaranteed their safety upon return to Mexico. The United States has been at expense of $2,500 a day for maintenance during the time they have been held.

No wood,
no coal,
no ashes

A Good Oil Stove does away with all the dirt and bother that comes with wood, coal and ashes. It makes light work and a clean kitchen.

New Perfection OIL COOK STOVE

burns kerosene, the clean, cheap fuel. It is a fine stove for hot weather because it doesn't over-heat the kitchen. All the heat is applied at the cooking point. You can bake, broil and roast on it just as well as on a wood or coal stove—and much quicker and cheaper. It doesn't smoke or smell; doesn't taint the food. Get an oil stove and make summer cooking easy and comfortable. Dealers Everywhere.
